Police investigating armed robbery at 7-Eleven

In less than a minute, two men armed with a silver handgun robbed a 7-Eleven on Woolbright Road early this morning.

The men, who wore masks, gloves and dark clothing, entered the store at 1:05 a.m. One man ran toward a clerk who was conducting inventory in the back of the store as the other suspect jumped over the counter and ordered another clerk to empty the cash register.

A customer at the coffee station during the time of the robbery told police she heard someone say “freeze” and looked over to see a man pointing a gun at a clerk’s face. She then began to cry and the suspect ordered her to get down on the ground.

The robbers fled the store with an undisclosed amount of cash at 1:06 a.m.
