Police arrest 8 men who solicited sex from undercover cops

Eight men were arrested Friday after they solicited sex from undercover Boynton Beach police officers.

The Boynton Beach Police Department's CRA Unit conducted the undercover prostitution sting in the 2700 block of South Federal Highway.

The men, who ranged in age from 28 to 53, were charged with solicitation of prostitution. Two other men were arrested after they sold the undercover officers Roxycodone. They were charged with sale of a schedule II narcotic.

All of the men were taken to the Palm Beach County jail.
