More than 100 children to Shop with a Cop this holiday season

The Boynton Beach Police Department is pleased to announce its 4th annual Shop with a Cop. The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 16 at Super Wal-Mart, 3200 Old Boynton Road in Boynton Beach.

More than 100 children from five elementary schools, the Lord's Place and the Boynton Beach Police Athletic League will team up with police officers to shop for holiday presents. Each child will receive a $100 gift card to use in the store. They will also be treated to demonstrations by the BBPD's K-9, Motor and Marine units.

The children were selected from Galaxy Elementary School, Poinciana Elementary School, Cross Pointe Elementary School, Forest Park Elementary School and Rolling Green Elementary School. Shopping times with officers are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Members of the media will be allowed to video/photograph inside the store as the children shop.

BBPD officers will barbecue lunch for the children, with food donated by Wal-Mart and Golden Corral. Other sponsors who have generously donated money to make this event possible are Sam's Club, Coca-Cola, Drapery Castle, Kiwanis Club of Boynton Beach, the Shell gas station at Gateway Boulevard and Federal Highway and many more businesses and citizens from throughout the community.

For more information or to contribute to Shop with a Cop 2009, please call Officer Robert Kellman at 561-742-6849.
